YERINGTON MAN GETS AWAY WITHOUT ANY SERIOUS TROUBLE

On Thursday night of this week Ben Blair, or George Peterson, who was confined in the county jail on a charge of larceny, locked Deputy Sheriff Guthrie in the county jail and bade that caravansary good bye. The leave taking of Blair occurred shortly after 10 o'clock, when Deputy Guth rie went to lock the prisoners in their cells. When Guthrie stepped into the jail corridor Blair evidently dodged around the cells, which set in the cen ter of the room, and finding the door into the main corridor of the court house aiar and the key in the door he ran out while the deputy was look ing around the other side of the corridor for him. Once through the door Blair turned the key and walked away, taking the keys with him. Deputy Guthrie gave an alarm at once and fired a couple of shots. Jim Bar ton, the janitor of the court house, who lives just behind the building heard the alarm and went to see what was the trouble. He found Guthrie in jail and learned from him what had happened.
